

Participated in the International Congress at UNAM

Description

default watermark

Shimizu North America LLC Mexico Branch was invited to the International Congress of Architecture with High Bioclimatic Technology and Sustainable Design. Mr. Kawamura, Mechanical Designer of Shimizu Corporation, gave a lecture about how the company has been facing environmental problems and how we will keep trying to fulfill the social missions as a Construction Company. Approximately 300 students and professors participated and showed their interest to our environmental technology.

Category

1. Uncategorized

Tags

1. Company News

Date Created
March 9, 2017
Author
aidev