

Participated in the International Congress at UNAM

Description

Shimizu North America LLC Mexico Branch was invited to the International Congress of Architecture with High Bioclimatic Technology and Sustainable Design. Mr. Kawamura, Mechanical Designer of Shimizu Corporation, gave a lecture about how the company has been facing environmental problems and how we will keep trying to fulfill the social missions as a Construction Company. Aproximately 300 students and professors participated and showed their interest to our environmental technology.

Category

1. Uncategorized

Date Created

March 9, 2017

Author

aidev